WCRE'S SECOND ANNUAL THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE EXCEEDS EXPECTATIONS

WCRE team members donate more than 70 bags of groceries to the Jewish Family and Children's Service food pantry.

November 25, 2015 – Marlton, NJ – Wolf Commercial Real Estate (WCRE) wrapped up its second annual Thanksgiving Food Drive today, bringing more than 70 bags of food and hundreds of dollars in supermarket gift cards to the Jewish Family and Children's Service food pantry. The Marlton-based firm collected food from friends, clients, and colleagues throughout the past several weeks.

The food drive is part of WCRE's Community Commitment program, which also includes donating a portion of the proceeds from every transaction to one of several local charities. Clients can also choose to direct the donation to a charity of their choosing.

“Our team is truly committed to helping people in this community during the holiday season and throughout the year,” said Jason Wolf, managing principal of the firm. “We are grateful for the support of all who donated to this drive, and will aim even higher next year.”
