WCRE ADDS FORMER DALLAS COWBOY TO TEAM

Phil Costa to Serve Philadelphia & Southern NJ Markets

Phil Costa

December 2, 2019 – Wolf Commercial Real Estate (WCRE) is pleased to announce the hiring of sales associate Phil Costa. Costa comes to WCRE from the sales and customer service field at Abbott, where he worked after a four-year NFL football career.

Costa will focus and specialize in commercial and multifamily assets in the Southern New Jersey and Philadelphia regions. Phil has developed a wide network of business and corporate relationships throughout the area and will focus to help landlords, investors and users develop strategies to achieve their commercial real estate goals.

Costa, a Holy Cross Preparatory Academy and University of Maryland alumni, recently finished his MBA at Columbia University. His areas of expertise include multi-family, investments and relationship development.

“Costa will be responsible for advising and supporting a diverse client base throughout their various commercial real estate transactions and needs. His hiring brings WCRE, which is approaching their 8-year anniversary, to a team of 26 outstanding commercial real estate service providers”, said Jason Wolf, founder and principal of WCRE.

“Our people have always been our biggest asset and differentiator in the marketplace.” Said Chris Henderson, Vice president and principal of WCRE.

Phil was a Team Captain and two-time Academic ACC student at the University of Maryland and spent four years with the Dallas Cowboys as an Offensive Lineman. Most recently, Phil co-authored the book, “The Transition Playbook for Athletes”. He lives in Philadelphia, PA.

Costa is a licensed salesperson in New Jersey and Pennsylvania license candidate.
