WCRE HELPS FEED THE COMMUNITY WITH 7th ANNUAL THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE

November 25, 2020 - Marlton, NJ – Wolf Commercial Real Estate (WCRE) wrapped up its seventh annual WCRE Thanksgiving Food Drive today by delivering over 150 bags of food and $2,100 in supermarket gift cards and donations to the Samost Jewish Family and Children's Service food pantry.

As in previous years, the firm spent the past several weeks collecting food and grocery store gift cards from friends, clients, and colleagues throughout the region. More than thirty area businesses contributed to the effort.

"Over the past seven plus years, WCRE has become an integral charitable partner in our efforts and this year, due to the pandemic, our needs have grown exponentially. Partners like WCRE are crucial to us!" said Marla Meyers, MSW, executive director of Samost Jewish Family and Children's Services of Southern New Jersey. "We thank the entire WCRE team for their generosity and leadership today and throughout the year."

The food drive is part of WCRE's Community Commitment program, which also includes donating a portion of the proceeds from transactions to one of several local charities.

In 2016, WCRE formed The WCRE Foundation to manage and oversee our community fundraising efforts and donations. To date, The WCRE Foundation has successfully raised approximately $400,000 from its community commitment efforts.

Currently, WCRE and The WCRE Foundation support Bancroft, CARES Institute at Rowan University, the American Cancer Society, Susan G. Komen Foundation, Samaritan Healthcare & Hospice and the Jewish Federation of Southern New Jersey. We also offer our clients the option to designate the charitable portion of their transaction to a charity of their choice.
