MARIA RUSS JOINS WCRE AS DIRECTOR OF PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

Russ brings nearly 20 years of commercial real estate experience

August 9, 2022 – Marlton, NJ – WCRE proudly announces the hiring of Maria Russ as Director of Property Management to lead the firm's facilities and property management growth in the Pennsylvania & New Jersey markets.

Maria has spent more than 18 years overseeing commercial, multifamily, and industrial properties working directly for different generations of owners. She has distinguished herself with accomplishments in multifamily and commercial property management in various areas of real estate practice. These include leadership, administration, lease negotiations, financials, policies and procedures, marketing, capital projects, tenant improvements, tenant retention, customer service, contract services, and project management.

Most recently, Maria worked with Manhattan Management, LLC and Berk and Berk Management, LLC, where she held the position of Senior Property Manager. Her team worked around the clock to build authentic relationships with clients and deliver the best service possible.

“Adding Maria to our team is going to provide a huge boost now and for our future plans. Her vast industry and operations experience, community commitment, personality, and knowledge of the region is a perfect match for WCRE,” said Jason Wolf, Managing Principal at WCRE.

“The WCRE team is regarded as one of the most innovative and forward-looking commercial real estate advisory firms in the area,” said Russ. “I am honored to join their team and I look forward to using my experience to transform and grow the WCRE brand across the region.”

Maria is a CPM candidate and holds the position of Vice President in the Southern New Jersey Chapter of IREM, the Institute of Real Estate Management. She was awarded the 2021 CPM of the year, and recently received the IREM President's Award in recognition of her outstanding long-term commitment to service. Additionally, Maria is a Member of BOMA and an integral part of the team that was recognized with the TOBY Award.
