WCRE HELPS FEED THE COMMUNITY WITH 9th ANNUAL THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE

November 22, 2022 - Marlton, NJ – Wolf Commercial Real Estate (WCRE) wrapped up its ninth annual WCRE Thanksgiving Food Drive today by delivering over 250 bags of food and $3,200 in supermarket gift cards and donations to the Samost Jewish Family and Children’s Service food pantry.

As in previous years, the firm spent the past several weeks collecting food and grocery store gift cards from friends, clients, and colleagues throughout the Philadelphia and Southern New Jersey region. More than forty plus area businesses contributed to the effort.

“Over the past nine years, WCRE has become an integral charitable partner in our efforts and this year, due to the pandemic and recent recession, our needs have grown exponentially. Partners like WCRE are crucial to us!” said Raechel Hammer, executive director of Samost Jewish Family and Children’s Services of Southern New Jersey. “We thank the entire WCRE team for their generosity and leadership today and throughout the year.”

The food drive is part of WCRE’s Community Commitment program, which also includes donating a portion of the proceeds from transactions to one of several local charities.

In 2016, WCRE formed The WCRE Foundation to manage and oversee our community fundraising efforts and donations. To date, The WCRE Foundation has successfully raised approximately $510,000 from its community commitment efforts.

Currently, WCRE and The WCRE Foundation support Bancroft, Ronald McDonald House of Southern New Jersey, the American Cancer Society, I AM ALS, Samaritan Healthcare & Hospice and the Jewish Federation of Southern New Jersey. We also offer our clients the option to designate the charitable portion of their transaction to a charity of their choice.
