GRACE LADELFA JOINS WCRE'S GROWING PROPERTY MANAGEMENT TEAM

LaDelfa brings a diverse commercial real estate background to WCRE services platform.

January 18, 2023 – Marlton, NJ – WCRE proudly announces the hiring of Grace LaDelfa as Property Manager to help accelerate and expand the firm's facilities and property management growth in the Philadelphia & Southern New Jersey region.

Grace's prior work experience is in a variety of industries – legal, energy, international business, and commercial real estate. These skill sets have provided Grace with a diverse background and knowledge, which assist her in all facets of business. Grace will also be able to utilize her prior commercial real estate experience to support the WCRE Brokerage & Advisory Team.

Prior to joining WCRE, Grace managed a portfolio of commercial real estate in the Southern New Jersey region, while also handling all marketing initiatives for the properties, including strategic research, demographic analysis, social media, and digital advertising. Most recently, Grace worked with Star Real Estate and EUS International, where she held the position of Property Manager and Business Development Specialist.

"Adding Grace to our team is going to provide a huge boost now and for our future plans. Her vast industry and operations experience, community commitment, personality, and knowledge of the region is a perfect match for our Property Management team at WCRE," said Maria Russ, Director of Property Management at WCRE.

“The WCRE team is regarded as one of the most innovative and forward-looking commercial real estate, property management, brokerage and advisory firms in the area,” said LaDelfa. “I am honored to join their team and I look forward to using my experience to transform and grow the WCRE Property Management brand across the region.”

Grace is also actively involved in the community and is affiliated with Special Olympics, Big Brothers and Big Sisters.

Prior to Grace’s professional work career, she attended Ursinus College and was a star athlete for the Ursinus Women’s Volleyball team.
