WCRE SECURES IDEAL LOCATION FOR LOTUS ABA SERVICES

December 2023 - CINNAMINSON, NJ— Lotus ABA Services proudly announces its grand opening, marking a significant step in offering inclusive Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) services to a diverse clientele.

Rooted in the science of Behavior Analysis, Lotus ABA Services stands as a beacon of evidence-based practices designed to transform and manage behaviors through meticulous data collection, comprehensive assessments, and the application of tailored replacement behaviors.

The cornerstone of Lotus ABA Services lies in its commitment to inclusivity, where the mission is to extend ABA services to everyone. Founder Tara Miller, driven by an unwavering belief in the transformative power of ABA, aspires to impact lives across the spectrum—spanning from typically developing individuals to those diagnosed with disabilities, from toddlers to seniors.

“Behavior Analysis is a science that transcends boundaries and holds the potential to enrich lives at every stage,” said Tara, owner of Lotus ABA Services. “Our goal is to facilitate growth, foster learning, and empower individuals and families to embrace their unique journeys, ensuring the best quality of life possible.”

Understanding the significance of integrated care, Lotus ABA Services collaborates with a team of allied therapists. These professionals are dedicated to assisting clients in honing self-care skills and navigating family life effectively.

Erin Warwick, Vice President at Wolf Commercial Real Estate (WCRE) played a pivotal role in securing an optimal 2,138 square foot building at the ideal location for Lotus. Through close collaboration with owner Tara Miller, Erin ensured that 1104 Route 130 in Cinnaminson, New Jersey, perfectly aligns the specific requirements to cater to the unique needs of Lotus’s patients.
