WCRE WELCOMES MIKE SCANZANO BACK TO THE FIRM: STRENGTHENING GROWTH AND LEADERSHIP TEAM FOR 2026

Marlton, NJ – January 8, 2026 – Wolf Commercial Real Estate (WCRE) is pleased to announce the return of Mike Scanzano, who rejoins the firm in 2026 following additional corporate and advisory experience. His return represents a strategic addition to WCRE's leadership team as the firm advances its growth initiatives for 2026.

"Mike's return is a strong indicator of the direction we're headed as a firm," said Jason Wolf, Managing Principal of WCRE. "As we look ahead to 2026, our focus is on sustainable growth, advisor development, and delivering greater value to our clients across our brokerage, advisory, property management, and community engagement platforms. Mike brings a mature, client-first mindset and a deeper understanding of corporate decision-making that aligns perfectly with where WCRE is going. His return reinforces the strength of our culture, our commitment to the communities we serve, and the long-term opportunities available within our firm."

During his time away, Scanzano provided tenant-focused commercial real estate advisory services, representing corporate clients in site selection, lease negotiations, renewals, and strategic real estate planning. This experience enhanced his understanding of corporate real estate decision-making and further refined his ability to align real estate strategy with broader business objectives.

Scanzano returns to WCRE with an expanded perspective on client strategy, operational structure, and advisory execution, positioning him for a leadership role within the firm. His expertise will support WCRE's continued growth by mentoring advisors, strengthening client relationships, and collaborating across service lines - including leasing, investment advisory, property management, and community-focused initiatives to deliver comprehensive and responsible real estate solutions.

WCRE's fully integrated in-house platform - including brokerage, property management, marketing, research, and operations - continues to be a key differentiator as the firm scales. The firm also maintains a longstanding commitment to giving back through philanthropic partnerships, nonprofit involvement, and civic leadership across the Southern New Jersey and Greater Philadelphia regions. This integrated approach enables WCRE to support clients throughout the full lifecycle of real estate ownership and occupancy while maintaining a strong connection to the communities in which it operates.

"I'm incredibly excited to be back at WCRE," said Scanzano. "WCRE is where my career began, and after gaining valuable experience elsewhere, it was clear this is the right place to build long-term impact. The firm's leadership, culture, and integrated platform - including property management and meaningful community involvement create an environment where advisors can collaborate and deliver stronger outcomes for clients. I'm proud to return in a leadership capacity and contribute to WCRE's momentum as we move into 2026."

As Wolf Commercial Real Estate continues to expand its platform and advisory services, Scanzano's return underscores the firm's commitment to investing in talent, strengthening leadership, delivering integrated real estate solutions, and maintaining a strong sense of responsibility to the communities it serves in 2026 and beyond.
