LOCATION OVERVIEW

State Highways & U.S. Routes

- New Jersey Route 49: A major east–west state route that runs through Salem, connecting the town to the New Jersey Turnpike, Interstate 295 (I-295), and U.S. Route 40 in Deepwater
- New Jersey Route 45: Starts at its southern terminus in Salem at Route 49, heading north through Woodstown and beyond. It's a main north–south artery linking to other communities .
- U.S. Route 40: Runs east–west across Salem County, entering via the Delaware Memorial Bridge and intersecting with Route 45 in Woodstown.

Interstates & Turnpike

- Interstate 295 (I-295): Bypasses nearby and connects Salem to the Delaware Memorial Bridge. It briefly shares alignment with US 40 and Route 49, providing access to the major highway network .
- New Jersey Turnpike: Also in the vicinity, providing broader regional connectivity, including links to I-295 and US 40

County Routes

- CR 657 (Griffith Street)—runs east–west through Salem and includes Griffith Street, which is directly relevant to Griffith Ave (which likely aligns with or continues this corridor)
- CR 625, CR 658, and others crisscross the city, connecting local streets with state highways
