WCRE WELCOMES ANDREW RAVITZ, CONTINUING GROWTH AND EMERGING TALENT

Marlton, NJ – Wolf Commercial Real Estate (WCRE | CORFAC International) is pleased to announce that Andrew Ravitz has joined the firm as an Advisor, further strengthening its commitment to cultivating new talent and driving continued growth. Andrew is a recent graduate of Temple University, where he earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in Business Management, and is a licensed real estate salesperson in the State of New Jersey.

As he begins his career in commercial real estate, Andrew brings a strong foundation in business principles along with deep-rooted ties to the South Jersey business community through Ravitz Family Markets, a well-known, multi-generational food service business. His connection to the region extends beyond business, with a strong appreciation for community engagement and relationship building values that align closely with WCRE's culture and long-standing commitment to the communities it serves. These connections position him to naturally build relationships and engage with regional retailers as part of WCRE's continued growth strategy.

In his new role, Andrew will work alongside WCRE's experienced brokers to develop his expertise, gain hands-on experience, and contribute to client-focused advisory services across the firm.

"Andrew represents the next generation of talent at WCRE," said Jason Wolf, WCRE's Managing Principal. "Our growth is driven not only by experience, but by the addition of individuals who bring strong local relationships and a fresh perspective. Andrew's background, community ties, and connections align perfectly with our strategy as we continue building a platform centered around collaboration and long-term success."

WCRE continues to prioritize growth through both experienced leadership and emerging professionals, supported by its fully integrated in-house marketing, research, and operations teams. This collaborative environment allows new advisors like Andrew to quickly gain exposure, build knowledge, and contribute to the firm's success.

"I'm excited to begin my career at Wolf Commercial Real Estate," said Andrew Ravitz. "The opportunity to learn from experienced brokers and be part of a team that prioritizes collaboration and long-term relationships is incredibly valuable. I'm looking forward to growing within the firm and contributing to its continued success."

As WCRE expands its platform, the addition of Andrew Ravitz reflects the firm's ongoing commitment to building strong community relationships, fostering new talent, and positioning itself for continued growth in 2026 and beyond.
